

Winter 11-12-1956

Discussion Groups Study Academic, Emotional, and Social Aspects of the Transition From High School to College

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

"Discussion Groups Study Academic, Emotional, and Social Aspects of the Transition From High School to College" (1956). News Releases. 47.

https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/47

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.

deans of women convention -- ad one

Discussion groups will study academic, emotional and social aspects of the transition from high school to college Saturday afternoon. Leading the discussions will be Miss Emily Taylor, associate dean of women at Miami University, Oxford; Miss Ruth Hier, assistant principal of Rhodes high school; John Wittich, director of admissions at DePauw University; Miss Mary Lou Gulp, senior counselor at Wyoming high school; Dr. George F. Wooster, assistant coordinator of student personnel, Ohio State University, and Mrs. Frances F. Seaman, assistant dean of women, Oberlin College.

Saturday's activities will conclude with a banquet at 7 p.m. in the Junior Ballroom in the Biltmore. Miss Mary Dolliver of Oberlin College will preside with the principal convention address being delivered by Dr. Ernest O. Melby, dean of the school of education at New York University. Dr. Melby will speak on "The Golden Threads of Freedom."

A breakfast honoring former association presidents will be held at 8 a.m. Sunday. Worship services will begin in the Junior Ballroom at 9:15 a.m. Dr. Frank B. Slutz of Dayton will speak on "The Counselor's Handbook Incomparable." Music for the services will be supplied by the Dayton Rotary Boys' Choir under the direction of S. Norman Parks. Miss Frances Brown of Dayton Roosevelt high school will preside.

The convention will close with a business session and election of new officers.

Journal - Women / Desk. Nov 12
News - " " " "

More than 100 deans, high school principals, assistant principals and counselors are expected to converge on Dayton over the week end for the annual state convention of the Ohio Association of Deans of Women.

Headquarters for the convention, to be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday (Nov. 18-20), will be the Biltmore Hotel.

Friday is slated as Visitors' Day and will get under way with registration from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. in the main lobby of the Biltmore. XXX Visitors also will be welcomed at Dayton high schools, Antioch College in Yellow Springs and at the University of Dayton.

A meeting of the association's executive board will be held in the hotel at 2:30 p.m. and A buffet program of music and modern dance will get under way at the University of Dayton at 7:30 p.m., presided over by Miss Kathleen Whetro, UP's dean of women.

Registration will continue Saturday from 8 a.m. to 12 noon at the Biltmore. First business session of the convention is set for 9 a.m. in the junior ballroom with Miss Lucille Wallace of White high school, Dayton, president of the association, presiding.

✓ Robert W. Montgomery, president of Muskingum College, and C. L. Fox,
✓ principal of Springfield high school, will speak on "The Transition from High School to College from the Administration's Point of View" at the general session at 10 a.m. in the hotel.

Presiding at the session will be Miss Elizabeth Hastings of Mather College, Western Reserve University.

A luncheon at 12:30 p.m. will feature an address on "Impressions of Asian Women" by Mrs. Iphigene Bettman of Cincinnati, writer and traveler.

MORE